- 4. Responsibility. The Organisers of this Show have taken reasonable precautions to ensure the health and safety of everyone present. For these measures to be effective, everyone must take all reasonable precautions to avoid and prevent accidents occurring and must obey the instructions of the Organisers and all the Officials and Stewards. The Society, its Officers, Servants or Agents shall not be responsible for any injury, damage or loss however caused to any animal, article or other property belonging to the exhibitor and the exhibitor agrees to indemnify the Society in respect of any costs in connection with any claims made upon the Society as a result of the actions or omissions of the exhibitor or of any employee of the exhibitor. Each exhibitor shall be solely responsible for any loss, injury or damage that may be done to, or occasioned from any animal, article or property exhibited or brought on to the Showground by him and he shall indemnify and hold harmless the Society from and against all actions, suits, expenses and claims on account of or in respect of any such damage or injury which may be caused or occasioned.
- 5. Attendants. Exhibitors or their attendants are responsible for their exhibits during the whole time they are at the Show. The Society expects all exhibitors to have had experience in display of livestock at shows and should be aware of the distractions that can be caused to livestock in their possession.
- 6. Judges. The Judges named in the Society's Prize Schedule and the Show Catalogue or Programme have consented and been appointed to act as Judges in the events indicated. The Committee reserves the right to appoint substitutes for any who may be unavoidably prevented from attending and all entries are accepted upon that understanding.
- 7. Judging. Judging will commence, as near as circumstances allow, at the times stated in the schedule under the respective sectional headings and exhibitors will be held responsible for their exhibits being in the judging ring at the commencement of their class.
- 8. Veterinary. No animal suffering from a contagious disease may be brought onto the Showground. In the event of a Veterinary Surgeon advising the removal of any animal from the Show his decision shall be final and immediately complied with.
